PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the State of South Dakota has intrusted the education of her youth to local boards of education who formulate the philosophy and objectives of public education and serve as the policy-making bodies for the public schools in the communities of our state, thus performing a very necessary function for the continued best interests of our state; and

WHEREAS, inasmuch as public education is a delicate and complex interweaving of local functions, state responsibilities and national concerns; and

WHEREAS, those who serve on these boards of education do so out of dedication to the welfare of boys and girls, and service such as this occurs daily throughout the state with an appreciable sacrifice of personal desire and time, often with little expression of gratitude:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, September 23, 1967, as-- and urge the citizens of our state to join me in commending them for their continuing public service.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 30th day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-seven.
